Michelle and Danial offer a unique program together: Their rhythm and styles of dance and theatre are seamless and they love collaborating creatively. Their talent and energy is infectious in the room and a treat for those who participate. Besides the Technique Classes taught by these two masters, we also offer special skills! Michelle has starred in feature films, on Broadway, recorded music, and danced with world famous ballet companies, including Russia's Kirov Ballet and the Joffrey Ballet Concert Group, New York. Michelle starred in the original TV series for NBC, "Fame" based on the successful film. Danial has worked with Michelle for fifteen years in TV, film, theatre and setting industrials such as the all-star event at the Nokia Theatre in 2009 for Nuskin starring Debbie Reynolds, Peabo Bryson and Gladys Knight and 40 dancers, aerialists and specialty artists. Danial has starred on Broadway in Saturday Night Fever and in Australia he was featured in Priscilla, Queen of the Desert and Wicked for long runs.
